

Matheesha and Adithi pocket Air Force squash titles

At just 16-years-old, Matheesha impressed the crowd not only by winning the Under-19 title, but also clinching the Under-17 crown. In the Boys' Under-19 final, Matheesha defeated his schoolmate Tharul Pinwatta, who secured the runner-up spot. The third place was claimed by Mohammed Rilwan of St. Joseph's College, while Thesath Hapuarachchi of Royal College finished in fourth.

The scholarship was formally presented to Vishmi Gunaratne at a special ceremony held on December 7 at the Olympic House, located at Independence Avenue in Colombo. The event celebrated Gunaratne's exceptional contributions to cricket and her aspirations to make an equally significant impact in the marketing field. Known for her dedication, skill, and determination in the field, Gunaratne's commitment to academic and professional growth makes her an exemplary candidate for this initiative by SLIM. Furthermore, the scholarship represents SLIM's enduring dedication to nurturing talent, promoting diversity, and contributing to Sri Lanka's progress by supporting outstanding individuals from all walks of life.

Gunaratne's passion for marketing reflects her drive to excel beyond the boundaries of her cricketing career. As someone who represents the dreams and hopes of a nation on the international stage, her determination to succeed in marketing clearly demonstrates the close relationship between sportsmanship and professional ambition. Accordingly, the schol-

Having brought Gunaratne's ach pitch have also n
of perseverance

Lyceum Anuradhapura

A colourful but refined ceremony was held on the premises with the participation of Anuradhapura Base Commander, Group Captain Poojana Nimantha Gunethilake of Sri Lanka Air Force, who graced the event as the chief guest, while swimming legend Julian Bolling, the Swimming Consultant to Lyceum Schools Network, attended as the guest of honour. The Principal, management team, parents, students, and well-wishers were also present to mark this joyous occasion.

Lyceum International have long prioritised the physical well-being and fitness of their student community and recognise the role of sport in instilling discipline and instilling leadership qualities in students.

Printed and published by Wijeya Newspapers Ltd. on S